A modern bathroom interior featuring a white rectangular sink with a dark grey faucet and a black soap dispenser. The sink is mounted on a light beige vanity unit with a large open storage compartment below it containing folded grey towels. In the background, a white bathtub with a grey towel draped over its edge is visible. The wall is a light beige color with a mirror reflecting the sink area. The Alka logo is visible in the top right corner and on the front of the vanity unit.
